

“

An annual Author's Luncheon is held each October. A nationally recognized author is invited by the Ocean City Free Public Library Board and the Friends group to provide an author talk to community members. It is a very popular event held at The Flanders Hotel.